Test Implementation

Test Implementation: The activity that prepares the testware needed for test execution based on test analysis and design.

Test Implementation include:

Acquiring or creating test data.

Organizing test cases into test suites.

Manual and automated test scripts are created.

Test procedures are prioritized into test execution schedule.

Test environment is setup and built.

Sometimes, test implementation is merged with test design.