Test Completion

Test completion occurs at project's milestones

- End of iteration.
- Product Release.
- End of a test level.

Test Completion involves:

Reporting any unresolved defects.

Creating changes requests.

Archiving useful testware.

Shutting down test environment.

Identification of lessons learned.

Communicating test completion report.